

RichLaffertyRacing.com, presents a 2-day Rich Lafferty Riding School to be held July 18 (Monday) and July 19 (Tuesday), after the Jack Pine National Enduro.

Class covers: brief bike set-up, proper body position, fundamental drills, ruts, logs, turns, whoops, wheelies, and more. Come on out and learn how to have better control, carry more momentum, and improve your result at the next race.

- Class will be from 9-5 each day, with a break for lunch. Lunch is not provided.
- School open to riders of any skill level, from 16 year old and up.
- 14 rider limit. One spot will be raffled off by Lansing Motorcycle Club.
- Class located at Lansing Motorcycle Club grounds (down the road from start of National).
- Free overnight camping at club grounds, sorry, no hook-ups.

Class fee is $250 per rider for 2 complete days of schooling. To reserve your spot please go to my website and sign up at this link, <http://www.richlaffertyracing.com/sign-up-online.html>
